

Buy Me Some Peanuts and...

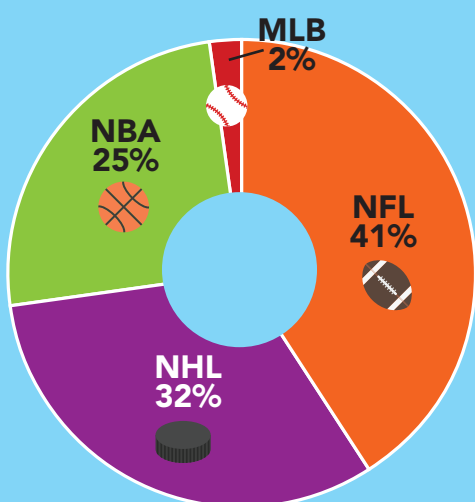

Wait a Second!

The COST OF SPORTING EVENTS

Sporting events come with the cost of tickets, concessions, parking, and apparel—it all adds up.

TICKET PRICE RANKINGS

CONCESSION PRICES

TWO THIRDS or more of a facilities concession's revenues come from hot dogs, peanuts, and other ballpark staples.

TICKET PRICE COMPARISONS 2011-2014

Save on Tickets

- Look for cheaper tickets online.
- Ask a friend who is a season ticket holder if you can take their place for an event.
- Attend a minor league or college event instead.
- Work or volunteer at the event.
- Host a viewing party from home instead of buying tickets.

Save on Concessions

- Tailgate before the game so you can skip the concession stand.
- Ask if there are any nights with concession deals.
- Bring your own food in, if the stadium allows it.
- If you have to eat at the game, limit yourself to what will fill you up—no need for a snow cone!
- Don't buy any beverages other than water.

Bio: Priscilla, 14, says she loves to read "mystery, scary, and "Diary of a Wimpy Kid" kind of books." She's aiming her future career at being a cardiovascular technician. Need we mention that she's on her high school basketball team?
